Name	ID	Comments
Patrick Kelly	pkelly03	Prof. Walters has done an excellent job with this course. He is an excellent facilitator and educator and his style and passion should be models for others in the field to emulate. As an aspiring academic, I hope to have a similar presence and impact in my classrooms.
Douglas Fisher	dfishe01	David was simply the best instructor thus far in my PhD program
Jessica Nicholson	jnich03	David is an excellent communicator of complex ideas in a clear, concise manner. He is very approachable and helpful, and seemed to be genuinely interested in students' understanding. He made classes engaging and fun (to the extent that statistics can be fun :)
Kimberly Thomas	kthoma08	The instructor provided exceptional help so that I can successfully complete this course. His willingness to provide assistance outside of classroom hours exceeded my expectations. I really appreciate it especially as a student outside of his discipline.
Rachel Pellett Gillette	rpellett	Who would have guessed that I would actually end up loving this course?! Any teacher who can not only make me feel significantly more confident about my abilities to succeed in statistics should receive a medal in my opinion; I'm just not quite sure, however, what Professor Walters should be awarded for not only boosting my confidence, but always being willing to help me through feeling overwhelmed and stuck, and moreover still, for making this class exciting, engaging, and something that I actually crave to learn more thoroughly! I cannot adequately express my appreciation for his dedication to teaching. What an AMAZING prof!!!
